KEMPER CHANNELLED SLIPPER CHAIR

Neatly stitched channels add a modern edge to this heirloom-quality chair. Made to order in North Carolina, the Kemper is eye-catching—with its ample proportions, handsome walnut legs, and the aforementioned channels—without dominating the room. Though the solid wood frame, slightly arched back, and down-wrapped foam core cushion will certainly make it a house favorite. By removing the arms, the Kemper stays versatile despite its size: buy a pair to use as tasteful lounge chairs or float one solo wherever you need a seat of substance.
